WELCOME TO WAREGEM

The capital of horses of Belgium possesses many extra assets! Downtown you can find the protected city park Baron Casier with a restored carriage house where local creatives exhibit their art. You can stroll down the shopping streets, enjoy a fresh beer on one of the many terraces or dine at one of the many bistro's and restaurants downtown. Discover Waregem and let yourself be surprised by our city at a gallop!

TIP

At the HIPPO.WAR visitor centre you discover everything about the role of horses and the Americans during The Great War. You can find photographs, film clips and audio files, authentic pieces, an interactive quiz and even a reconstructed horse hospital.

TIP

Flanders Field American Cemetery is the only World War I American military cemetery in Belgium. 368 soldiers found their last resting place in Waregem and another 43 are mentioned on the Wall of the Missing. At the visitor centre you can find out more about the story behind the fallen soldiers.
